

ARIZONA CARDINALS INTEL REPORT

2026 training camp edition — Kyler Murray is gone, the presumptive starter is holding out, and the Mike LaFleur era begins with a three-man quarterback competition.

UPDATED
July 25, 2026

3-14	Mike LaFleur	3	Aug 11	First
2025 RECORD	NEW HEAD COACH	QBS COMPETING	CAMP ENDS	TEAM FULLY REPORTED

◆ FRONT OFFICE & LEADERSHIP

- ◆ Gannon out, LaFleur in. A 3–14 collapse cost Jonathan Gannon his job and launched the Mike LaFleur era. Arizona is not pretending otherwise — national previews describe this camp under a single instruction: embrace the rebuild.
- ◆ The Murray divorce. Arizona moved on from Kyler Murray, who signed with Minnesota for the veteran minimum — with the Cardinals still paying the remainder of his $36.5M guarantee for 2026. That is the price of a clean break.
- ◆ Plan B didn't land either. The club struck out on both Malik Willis and Jimmy Garoppolo before settling on Gardner Minshew and spending a third-round pick on Carson Beck.
- ◆ Camp: opened Wednesday, runs through Aug. 11 at State Farm Stadium. Arizona and Carolina were the first two teams in the league to fully report.

◆ TRADES & MAJOR TRANSACTIONS

- ◆ DEPARTED Kyler Murray, QB — to Minnesota, with Arizona absorbing the guaranteed money.
- ◆ SIGNED QB Gardner Minshew, presumed as a backup rather than a solution.
- ◆ SIGNED G Isaac Seumalo — three years, $31.5M, the clearest signal that the offensive line is being overhauled.
- ◆ SIGNED WR/RS Devin Duvernay, a former All-Pro returner who takes both return jobs and adds a speed element on offense.
- ◆ DRAFT QB Carson Beck (3rd round, signed his rookie deal July 22 as camp opened), RB Jeremiyah Love, and 2025 first-rounder DT Walter Nolen III now healthy after an injury-marred rookie year.

◆ PLAYER UPDATES & CAMP BATTLES

- ◆ HOLDOUT Jacoby Brissett, QB. The presumptive starter skipped the entire offseason program seeking a new deal. His absence is why a three-man competition exists at all.
- ◆ Carson Beck, QB (3rd round). Signed July 22 and thrown straight into a competition with Brissett and Minshew. A rookie starting Week 1 is a live possibility.
- ◆ Jeremiyah Love, RB. The rookie some analysts call the best player on the roster, with a projected 1,000-yard, 10-touchdown ceiling. The starting running back job is genuinely open.
- ◆ Walter Nolen III, DT. The 2025 first-rounder lost his rookie season to injuries; healthy now, he's the defense's most important developmental case.
- ◆ Isaac Seumalo, G. The veteran anchor of a line being rebuilt around him.
- ◆ Devin Duvernay, WR/RS. Immediate upgrade on both return units — the fastest way for a rebuilding roster to steal field position.

◆ CAMP CALENDAR

Now – Aug 11	Training camp, State Farm Stadium, Glendale
QB reps	Brissett (if he reports) vs. Minshew vs. Beck
RB1	Jeremiyah Love vs. the incumbents
Watch	Nolen's health; Seumalo settling the interior line

◆ THE BOTTOM LINE

Arizona is paying a quarterback $36.5M to play in Minnesota, and the man supposed to replace him hasn't shown up. That is the 2026 Cardinals in one sentence. Mike LaFleur inherits a genuine rebuild — a rookie third-rounder who might have to start, a running back who could be the roster's best player, and a first-round defensive tackle finally healthy. Seumalo and Duvernay are the only signings that look like wins today. The rest is development, and everybody in the building knows it.