

ATLANTA FALCONS INTEL REPORT

2026 training camp edition — a new head coach, a nearly new front office, and a quarterback competition nobody saw coming a year ago.

UPDATED
July 25, 2026

Kevin Stefanski

NEW HEAD COACH

Tua vs. Penix

QB1 BATTLE

July 29

FIRST CAMP PRACTICE

New

FRONT OFFICE

3

EDGE RUSHERS ADDED

◆ FRONT OFFICE & LEADERSHIP

- ◆ Kevin Stefanski takes over. Atlanta opens its first camp under the former Browns head coach, with a coaching staff and front office that are largely new — one of the most complete organizational resets in the league this offseason.
- ◆ The mandate is the quarterback. Stefanski inherits a QB room that now includes both Tua Tagovailoa and Michael Penix Jr., and settling it is the defining task of his first summer.
- ◆ Roster philosophy: fix the two things that cost Atlanta games — pass rush and pass-catching depth — with volume rather than one headline contract.

◆ TRADES & MAJOR TRANSACTIONS

- ◆ SIGNED Tua Tagovailoa, QB arrives to compete with Michael Penix Jr. for the starting job — the storyline every national preview leads with.
- ◆ SIGNED RT Jawaan Taylor from Kansas City, then traded for his former Chiefs teammate OT Wanya Morris — the right side of the line rebuilt in a week.
- ◆ SIGNED EDGE Azeez Ojulari (from Philadelphia), EDGE Cameron Thomas and EDGE Samson Ebukam — three additions to a rush that needed all three.
- ◆ SIGNED WR Jahan Dotson and WR Olamide Zaccheaus (from Chicago); drafted WR Zachariah Branch in the third round.
- ◆ TRADE Acquired S Sydney Brown and picks 122 and 215 from Philadelphia for picks 114 and 197 (March 20).
- ◆ RE-SIGNED TE Kyle Pitts on a new contract — the most notable retention of the offseason. K Nick Folk, 41, added along with a new punter; LS Liam McCullough stays.

◆ PLAYER UPDATES & CAMP BATTLES

- ◆ QB1 is the camp. Tagovailoa vs. Penix is a real competition, not a formality, and Stefanski's read on it will shape how the rest of the roster is used.
- ◆ Kyle Pitts, TE. New deal in hand, and a Stefanski offense is historically friendly to a tight end who can win up the seam.
- ◆ Jawaan Taylor & Wanya Morris, OT. Two Chiefs imports handed the right side of the line — continuity of scheme and familiarity with each other is the bet.
- ◆ Zachariah Branch, WR (3rd round). The most explosive rookie in the class of additions; joins Dotson and Zaccheaus in a rebuilt receiver room.
- ◆ Edge rotation, from scratch. Ojulari, Thomas and Ebukam were all signed to solve the same problem. Which two emerge is a genuine camp battle.
- ◆ Nickel corner, open. Free-agent Darnay Holmes and trade acquisition Sydney Brown are both in the mix.

◆ LATEST ROSTER MOVES

MOVE	DETAIL
▲ Kevin Stefanski	Hired as head coach; staff and front office largely new
▲ Tua Tagovailoa, QB	Signed to compete with Penix for QB1
▲ Jawaan Taylor, RT	Signed from Kansas City
▲ Wanya Morris, OT	Acquired by trade from Kansas City
▲ Ojulari, Thomas, Ebukam	Three edge rushers added in free agency
▲ Dotson, Zaccheaus, Branch	Receiver room rebuilt in FA and the draft
▲ Kyle Pitts, TE	Signed a new contract
▲ Sydney Brown, S	Acquired from Philadelphia with picks 122 and 215
▲ Nick Folk, K	Signed at 41 alongside a new punter

◆ THE BOTTOM LINE

Atlanta blew it up at the top — new coach, new staff, new front office — and then spent the offseason buying the two things Stefanski's system cannot function without: a competent right side of the offensive line and enough pass rush to keep games close. The rest is the quarterback. Tagovailoa and Penix will settle it in camp, and whichever way Stefanski rules, it is the decision his tenure gets judged on. First practice is July 29.