

BALTIMORE RAVENS

INTEL REPORT

2026 training camp edition — 18 years of John Harbaugh ended in January. Jesse Minter's first camp opens with Lamar Jackson learning a brand-new offense.

UPDATED
July 25, 2026

Jesse Minter

NEW HEAD COACH

Declan Doyle

NFL'S YOUNGEST PLAYCALLER

24th

2025 DEFENSE RANK

Hendrickson

MARQUEE ADDITION

18 Years

HARBAUGH ERA ENDED

FRONT OFFICE & LEADERSHIP

- ◆ The Harbaugh era is over. Baltimore fired John Harbaugh after 18 seasons and a Super Bowl XLVII title; he was hired by the Giants days later on a five-year deal.
- ◆ Jesse Minter takes over and reset the operation around himself. He called the Baltimore job "the one I wanted," and has made building a relationship with Lamar Jackson his first stated priority.
- ◆ Declan Doyle runs the offense. Hired from Chicago, he is the NFL's youngest play-caller — and everything about camp routes through Jackson learning his system.
- ◆ Minter's own assignment: fix a defense that finished 24th in 2025, which is what got the last staff fired.

TRADES & MAJOR TRANSACTIONS

- ◆ SIGNED Trey Hendrickson, EDGE — the marquee addition, and a fast pivot after Baltimore rescinded a trade for Maxx Crosby that would have cost 2026 first-round capital. The sequence drew criticism around the league.
- ◆ SIGNED DL Calais Campbell — the veteran presence on a rebuilt front.
- ◆ DRAFT G Vega loane (Penn State) in the first round, plus pass rusher Zion Young — a reworked offensive line and more juice off the edge.
- ◆ RE-SIGNED QB Tyler Huntley and CB Daryl Awuzie; OL Gwyn added on a one-year deal for depth.
- ◆ LOST TE Charlie Kolar to the Chargers — Smythe is expected to take over as the blocking tight end. TE Isaiah Likely followed Harbaugh to New York on a 3-year, $40M deal.

PLAYER UPDATES & CAMP BATTLES

- ◆ Lamar Jackson, QB. Learning an entirely new system for the first time in years. Doyle's install, and how quickly the two of them find a shared language, is the defining question of Baltimore's season.
- ◆ Timing with the pass catchers. Jackson's rhythm with Zay Flowers, Rashod Bateman, Mark Andrews and the young receivers has to be rebuilt inside a new scheme — and without Likely.
- ◆ A reworked offensive line. Jackson's comfort behind it is a stated camp storyline; first-round guard Vega loane is expected to help immediately.
- ◆ Trey Hendrickson, EDGE. Signed to be the pressure Baltimore's 24th-ranked defense never generated.
- ◆ Calais Campbell, DL. Veteran anchor next to Hendrickson and Young in Minter's front.
- ◆ Lamar arrived on time for the first Minter camp — a small thing that was, given the offseason, its own headline.

LATEST ROSTER MOVES

MOVE	DETAIL
▲ Jesse Minter	Hired as head coach
▲ Declan Doyle	Hired as OC from Chicago
▲ Trey Hendrickson, EDGE	Signed after the Crosby trade was rescinded
▲ Calais Campbell, DL	Veteran defensive line signing
▲ Vega loane, G	First-round pick, Penn State
▲ Zion Young, EDGE	Added to the pass rush
▲ Huntley & Awuzie	Re-signed
▼ John Harbaugh	Fired after 18 seasons; hired by the Giants
▼ Isaiah Likely, TE	Followed Harbaugh to New York, 3 yr / $40M
▼ Charlie Kolar, TE	Signed with the Los Angeles Chargers

THE BOTTOM LINE

Baltimore did the hardest thing a stable franchise can do: it ended an 18-year marriage and started over on the sideline while keeping a former MVP at quarterback. Jesse Minter inherits the 24th-ranked defense he was hired to fix and hands the offense to the league's youngest play-caller. Hendrickson and Campbell make the front credible; loane makes the line better. But the season lives or dies on how fast Lamar Jackson learns Declan Doyle's language. The offseason was aggressive enough that missing the playoffs would count as failure.