

BUFFALO BILLS INTEL REPORT

2026 training camp edition — nine seasons of Sean McDermott ended in January. Joe Brady is the head coach, the defense is switching fronts, and Josh Allen finally has a true WR1.

UPDATED
July 25, 2026

Joe Brady

NEW HEAD COACH

33–30 OT

2025 DIVISIONAL LOSS

Brandon Beane

PRES. OF FOOTBALL OPS

DJ Moore

NEW WR1

3–4

NEW BASE DEFENSE

◆ FRONT OFFICE & LEADERSHIP

- ◆ McDermott fired. Nine seasons, no Super Bowl, and a 33–30 overtime loss to Denver in the divisional round ended it. Buffalo announced the decision the following Monday.
- ◆ Joe Brady promoted. The offensive coordinator got the job. He was candid about the cost: "I was broken" for McDermott and the assistants who were let go.
- ◆ Beane elevated. GM Brandon Beane was promoted to president of football operations and oversaw the coaching search that landed on his own play-caller.
- ◆ Scheme change on defense. The new coordinator brings a 3-4 base, a structural break from McDermott's 4-3 and one of several reasons ESPN describes this as an "extremely tough" camp.

◆ TRADES & MAJOR TRANSACTIONS

- ◆ TRADE DJ Moore acquired from Chicago for a 2026 second-round pick (Buffalo also received a 2026 fifth). Josh Allen finally gets a proven WR1 — and Moore reunites with Joe Brady, his offensive coordinator in Carolina.
- ◆ SIGNED EDGE Bradley Chubb on a three-year deal — the marquee defensive addition for the new front.
- ◆ SIGNED QB Kyle Allen (2 yr / $6.1M, from Detroit) — another former Bills backup, and a close friend of Josh Allen's.
- ◆ LOST T Ryan Van Demark to Minnesota after Buffalo declined to match an offer sheet; G David Edwards to New Orleans on a deal with $45M guaranteed.
- ◆ Very little was left untouched for a franchise that had been among the league's most stable.

◆ PLAYER UPDATES & CAMP BATTLES

- ◆ Josh Allen, QB. Arguably no player in football carries more pressure into 2026. Nine years in, with a new head coach and a new scheme on the other side of the ball, his leadership through the transition is the point. His own words: there's a lot new, and "we'll really make our team during training camp."
- ◆ DJ Moore, WR. The separator Buffalo has been missing, arriving into a system run by a coach who already knows how to use him.
- ◆ Bradley Chubb, EDGE. Signed to give the new 3-4 front a genuine edge presence.
- ◆ Dalton Kincaid, TE. The fourth-year tight end's career keeps getting interrupted — the left knee most recently. He is genuinely impactful when available; availability is the whole issue.
- ◆ Defensive install. Moving from a 4-3 to a 3-4 mid-career for an entire roster is the hardest thing this team is attempting in August.
- ◆ Offensive line, thinner. Van Demark and Edwards both left; interior depth is a live question.

◆ LATEST ROSTER MOVES

MOVE	DETAIL
▲ Joe Brady	Promoted from OC to head coach
▲ DJ Moore, WR	Trade with Chicago for a 2026 second
▲ Bradley Chubb, EDGE	Three-year deal
▲ Kyle Allen, QB	2 yr / $6.1M from Detroit
▲ Brandon Beane	Promoted to president of football operations
▼ Sean McDermott	Fired after nine seasons
▼ Ryan Van Demark, T	Offer sheet from Minnesota not matched
▼ David Edwards, G	Signed with New Orleans

◆ THE BOTTOM LINE

Buffalo fired a coach who won a lot of regular-season games and never got to a Super Bowl, promoted the man who ran its offense, and handed the defense a new front to learn. Then it went out and got Josh Allen the No. 1 receiver he has never had. That is a franchise spending its remaining Allen years decisively rather than carefully. It is also a lot of change at once, which is exactly why the quarterback keeps saying the team gets made in camp.