

MIAMI DOLPHINS INTEL REPORT

2026 training camp edition — Tua is gone, Waddle is gone, Jeff Hafley is in, and a $67.5M quarterback from Green Bay inherits one of the league's thinnest receiver rooms.

NEW HEAD COACH	PROJECTED QB1	WILLIS CONTRACT	FIRST-ROUND PICKS	ACHANE'S 2025 RUSH YARDS

FRONT OFFICE & LEADERSHIP

- ◆ Jeff Hafley takes over a roster in the middle of near-total turnover — and brought Green Bay's offensive structure with him, including coordinator Sullivan and the quarterback.
- ◆ The Tua era ended abruptly. Miami cut Tua Tagovailoa, who signed with Atlanta, and traded Jaylen Waddle. Both moves left the roster, in the words of one national preview, severely talent deficient.
- ◆ The honest framing: previews of this camp are titled some version of brace for growing pains. Nobody inside or outside the building is selling 2026 as a contention year.
- ◆ The plan is the draft class — two first-rounders and four more picks expected to play immediately.

TRADES & MAJOR TRANSACTIONS

- ◆ SIGNED Malik Willis, QB — three years, $67.5M, following Hafley and Sullivan from Green Bay. In 11 appearances behind Jordan Love he completed 79% of his passes at 10.9 yards per attempt with six touchdowns and zero interceptions.
- ◆ RELEASED Tua Tagovailoa, QB — signed with Atlanta, where he now competes for that job.
- ◆ TRADE Jaylen Waddle, WR dealt away, gutting the receiver room in the same offseason.
- ◆ DRAFT OT Kadyn Proctor (1st), CB Chris Johnson (1st), LB Jacob Rodriguez (2nd), WR Chris Bell (3rd), EDGE Trey Moore (4th), LB Kyle Loui (4th).
- ◆ SIGNED EDGE Joshua Uche (from Philadelphia) and EDGE David Ojabo; WR Jalen Tolbert added from Dallas.

PLAYER UPDATES & CAMP BATTLES

- ◆ Malik Willis, QB. Enters camp as the clear-cut projected starter. His Green Bay efficiency numbers are excellent and came in a very small, very protected sample — that gap is the season's central question.
- ◆ Quinn Ewers, QB. The only other quarterback on the roster with NFL experience: three rookie starts, 83 attempts, 66% completions, 7.5 yards per attempt, three touchdowns and three interceptions.
- ◆ De'Von Achane, RB. The offense's one unambiguous strength — 1,350 rushing yards and eight touchdowns in 2025. Expect the run game to carry a first-year starter.
- ◆ The receiver room is the problem. Chris Bell, TuTu Atwell, Jalen Tolbert and Malik Washington is, by most national assessments, among the weakest groups in the league.
- ◆ Kadyn Proctor, OT & Chris Johnson, CB. Two first-round rookies expected to start on a roster with no one blocking their path.
- ◆ Uche & Ojabo, EDGE. Low-cost bets on former high-pedigree rushers looking to restart their careers.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Miami removed its quarterback and its second receiver in the same offseason and replaced them with a coach's familiar backup and two first-round rookies. That is not a retool, it is a teardown with a plausible story attached: Willis was genuinely excellent in limited Green Bay work, Achane can carry an offense, and six early picks will play right away. The receiver room says growing pains. Everyone in South Florida already knows it.
